Sermon Discussion Guide

Part 6 - Pastor Rob Ketterling

Let's Recap:

As disciples of Jesus Christ, we are called us to live morally upright and pure. There are daily temptations to retreat from purity, and the Apostle Paul even says it will feel like a war to live as God intends. As we pursue this call to purity, we become walking witnesses to what God is doing in our lives, transforming us from despair to life and life to the fullest.

Tune In:

To prepare for our discussion, please read the following passages: Romans 3:23, Ephesians 2:1-5, 1 Peter 2:11, 1 Peter 2:12, Galatians 5:19-21, Acts 15:19-20, 1 Corinthians 6:18-20, Romans 13:14, 2 Timothy 2:22, Job 31:1, Proverbs 5:3, 1 Timothy 5:2, Philippians 4:8, Galatians 5:16, 1 Thessalonians 4:4-5, and 1 John 1:9

Go Deep:

- The call to live a morally upright and pure life is not easily conquered. What can a follower Jesus do to ensure he or she can pursue this call faithfully?
- Why do you think God calls to live in a way that is upright and pure? How does this kind of life witness to the work the Holy Spirit is doing in our lives?
- God invites us to guard our minds, bodies, hearts, eyes, and ears in this life. What are some practical ways you can begin to guard yourself?

Live Out:

If we want to live morally pure lives, we are going to have to fight for it. Because our bodies are now temples of the Holy Spirit, we are called to steward our bodies with holiness and care. Pray together as a group for the strength, community, and grace to pursue this important call as disciples of Jesus Christ. It is not a call we can fully do on our own. We need each other and the power of the Holy Spirit!
