

Big Vision Requires Big Teams

Pastor Rob Ketterling

Key Points:

- Big vision can only be accomplished with a big team
- People are compelled by difficult and big challenges, not easy or small tasks
- Every part has a unique and critical role to play
- We should celebrate every part and seek to honor people who mean a lot to us

Main Scripture Reference(s):

- 1 Corinthians 12:21-22 - Romans 11:13 - 1 Corinthians 3:6-10 - 1 Corithnians 7:6-7

Discussion Questions:

1. Why are visions or challenges that are difficult to accomplish compel people?
2. What visions, challenges or volunteer organizations are you apart of that are bigger than yourself?
3. Think about the "Nasal Naught" and the role he plays within NASA. Why is it important that we all use our gifts to help those around us?
4. In what ways (outside of work) are you using your gifts to benefit others? If you are not, where can you start?
5. How can you celebrate the people in your life that have used their gifts to benefit your life?
